FRIDAY 18 DEC

SERVICE DAY

The true magic of Christmas isn't found in the presents we receive, but in the love, kindness and joy we share with others! This Christmas, we're encouraging children to discover how even the smallest acts of kindness can make a BIG difference. Together, we'll create Christmas Giving Parcels filled with handmade gifts and heartfelt cards for those in our community who could use a little extra Christmas cheer. We'll decorate our Giving Tree with kind words and thoughtful wishes, before spreading festive joy through Carols at the Gate for families and passers-by. Through these special acts of service, children will discover the joy of giving, the importance of compassion and how a little kindness can mean the world to someone else!
